

CITY OF LEMON GROVE
MAYORAL CANDIDATE

ALYSSON SNOW

AGE: 50

OCCUPATION: COUNCILMEMBER / LAW PROFESSOR

Alysson Snow is a city councilmember and a law professor at the University of San Diego School of Law, where she leads and directs the Housing Rights Legal Clinic. Prior to joining USD, Snow ran the Consumer Protection Division at the Legal Aid Society of San Diego. As a councilmember and as a lawyer, Snow has a strong track record of keeping people in their homes, gas in their cars, and food on the tables. Her unique skill set is designed to help people during tough financial times.

Snow served on the frontlines after the floods, helping Lemon Grove residents clean-up, get resources, and stay housed. She's accessible and there when you need her. She is fluent in Spanish.

Snow's vision for Lemon Grove is to become a place where you can buy your first home, start your business, and drive on safe roads.

Snow has collaborated with the White House, the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation, the U.S. Department of Energy, and the Federal Trade Commission on consumer and housing issues. She is a frequent speaker at the National Consumer Law Center, American Bar Association, and National Legal Aid and Defender Association conferences. She's been interviewed by HBO's John Oliver Show, Bloomberg, Vice, L.A. Times, The Guardian, Univision, and Telemundo.

The Consumer Attorneys of San Diego awarded Snow "Consumer Advocate of the Year" and the World Justice Project recognized her success to help secure access to justice for working families through her Housing Retention Project.
