Stephanie Klein is a Lemon Grove resident and Native San Diegan. She holds a Master's Degree in business with emphasis in communication and entrepreneurship. She is also a business owner and Realtor serving San Diego County. Stephanie is a faith-based leader with a passion for community. Her professionalism, communication skills and courage aim to create positive change.

With your vote, Stephanie Klein will continue to spend her time addressing Public Safety and Homeless issues. Her volunteer efforts have helped her to identify and understand the need for additional community resources. Trash, graffiti, negligence, and crime are all on her radar as she bolsters community support and holds accountable our resources. Stephanie Klein will continue to strengthen our Community Life by providing experiences to build relationships, voice concerns, and work together toward positive solutions. Economic Development will naturally improve as our local business's band together through volunteerism, community improvement projects and partnership with both the city and local Chambers of Commerce.

With over 25 years of customer service experience Stephanie understands the importance of listening, acknowledging, exploring, and responding to various concerns with compassionate solutions. She is excited to continue serving you in the city of Lemon Grove with dignity and purpose!
