City of Lemon Grove Unveils Its Homeless Action Plan

The City of Lemon Grove has unveiled its Homeless Action Plan, a comprehensive strategy approved by the City Council to reduce homelessness and expand supportive housing.

Key findings from the 2025 Point-in-Time Count show 110 unsheltered residents in the city, with more than 260 students experiencing housing insecurity. The plan focuses on:

- Securing safe, supportive housing.
- Increasing public awareness.
- Strengthening regional partnerships.
- Expanding outreach and funding.
- Preventing homelessness through diversion programs.

The City is working with the County and local partners on projects that build on proven strategies to reduce homelessness and to implement measures aimed at homelessness prevention.
