Krystle understands how hard it is to work, pay all your bills and care for others. She has lived in Lemon Grove for over a decade, helping make our city a better place for everyone who lives here. A special education teacher for over 13 years, Krystle Johnson has seen food distributions go from 50 families to 300. We need to fix our infrastructure, create a vibrant business climate, and prioritize places for everyone to connect and safely enjoy Lemon Grove. Krystle is endorsed by the Heartland Firefighters, the San Diego & Imperial Counties Labor Council, and the San Diego County Democratic Party. She is running to continue to advocate for and protect families, and bring together all of Lemon Grove to work towards the common goal of elevating our city. She does what she says she is going to do and will work harder on the city council than anyone else to make sure the community is the first priority for all that we do. She would be honored to earn your vote. krystlejohnson.com.
